

Pascoes Ghost finds the inspector investigating the fate of a woman who seems to have slipped out of the world, and hasnt been seen by a soul for a year-unless you count her brother, who claims her ghost is haunting him. Dalziels Ghost sees the man who normally wouldnt be seen dead in a graveyard expressing a surprising interest in the other side. One Small Step, looks to the future where murder on the moon requires the personal intervention of Commissioner Peter Pascoe... All four of these tales are told with the panache and ingenuity that has won Reginald Hill his reputation as probably the finest British crime writer of the modern era.
