

Description: In order to examine the exact nature of Bezas influence on the AV we investigated two documents which purport to represent two different stages in the making of the AV; the Bodleian Bishops MS which deals with the Gospels and the Fulman MS which deals with the Epistles and which appears to represent the work of the Final Revision Committee. . . . In examining the MS annotations in Bodleian Bishops our primary concern has been to establish the influence of Beza on these annotations and relate his influence on the Bodleian annotator to his influence on the finished AV. . . . In examining the Fulman MS . . . we were struck by the comparatively larger number of discrepancies between the Committees attitude to Beza and the AVs attitude to him. --from the Conclusion About the Contributor(s): Irena Dorota Backus received the D.Phil. from Oxford University and wrote her Habilitationsschrift at the University of Bern, Switzerland. She is professeur ordinaire at the Institut d'histoire de la Reformation at the University of Geneva, Switzerland. Among her many publications are The Reception of the Church Fathers in the West, Reformation Readings of the Apocalypse, and Historical Method and Confessional Identity in the Era of the Reformation, 1378-1615.
