

When Jaleesa Carlyle receives her greatest wish, marriage to sexy and successful Jerome Taylor, she vows to be the best wife and mother a woman can be. However, she soon discovers that her second string position to his former lover, Lorraine Alexander, leaves her open and vulnerable to her husband's cruelty on the heels of his shattered relationship. Despite her shame Jaleesa willingly succumbs, hoping her dedication will finally win her first place in his heart. After fleeing Chicago and her perpetually unfaithful lover, Jerome, Lorraine is happy with her new life in New York City, devoting herself to her career and her new daughter. However, she still manages to find herself smack dab in the middle of a love triangle. With Keith Peterson pressuring her to let him be the father to her child and his driver, sexy Jackson Williams, creating a stir in areas she was trying to forget existed, she wonders if she should marry the man she wants or the man she needs.
