

Addresses the psychological, relational and financial issues impacting women in family owned businesses; wives who want their husbands to retire; mothers who want their children to be treated fairly; widows who don't know whether to keep or sell the business; stepmothers who feel like outsiders; daughters who want their fathers approval; sisters who want the same opportunities as brothers; and daughters-in-law and sisters-in-law who want to be treated with respect. Written by a team of advisers, each of whom has more than two decades of experience consulting for family businesses, this book informs, entertains and provides those women with survival tools for taking care of themselves and their families.
